Get creative

Consider getting a little 'creative' in your ways to educate and commemorate

- Plant daffodils at home or at your school.
- Join a Zoom workshop with POLIN Museum
- Ask to have a workshop with POLIN on the topic of the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising.
- Hold events for making paper daffodils or planting daffodils at your school, synagogue, church, or organization.
- Youth can join the Young Leaders Program, and be an ambassador in their classroom.
- Be one of our online ambassadors in your community. Help spread the word about our campaign.

Host a memorial

Hold a moment of silence or plan an event →

Gather in your own way with friends and loved ones. Wear the daffodil, and hold a moment of silence in honor of those who arose in the Uprising, and for those who perished in the Holocaust. Maybe plan your own event.

Invite a POLIN Representative →

Contact our office in advance to secure someone from POLIN who could speak online to your group or community
